The Voice of the Pastor

My dear Fathers, Sisters and Brothers, after two months period of solitude and prayer, once again we are on our heels in resuming our ministries. During this great period of Tribulation (Mt. 24:15-28) where everyone is affected either directly or indirectly by this worldwide pandemic, we not only experienced a lot of hardships, famine, war situations, pain, sufferings etc., but also did we experience a new leash of hope in building up a better humanity.

While we all, due to the continuous lock downs, suffered loss of coolie work, daily wages, jobs, salary, barring of community celebration of Sacraments, in particular, the Holy Eucharist, access to food etc., the pandemic also helped us to learn to be quiet in spending time in solitude and prayer. A lot of time was available, during this lockdown period, to go deeper into the love relationship with God and to evaluate one's own relationship with others. Since the lockdown period also fell in Lenten season most of us entered into such a deeper communion with the Lord. Several hours of adoration, chain of rosary prayers and continuous recollection for the religious have been actively going on throughout the Archdiocese. For priests and religious it had been a grace-filled time to grow in deeper communion with God and to evaluate one's ministry. For family people too, it had been a time to be with one's own family members continuously, spending time in sharing and doing together household works. Many families had developed the habit of family prayer and rosary due to the initiatives of parish priests who used social media well to animate the community.

However, the hardships that we all experienced are far greater. Loss of daily wage, loss of employment drove many of our poor people to despair and misery. Here came the help from all the corners of the Archdiocese in order to feed the poor. I sincerely thank all the parish priests, religious superiors and heads of institutions who hastened like Mother Mary (Lk 1,39) to help the poor and the needy. Upon hearing the devastating news of Great Famine (45 – 64 AD) in Roman empire, St. Paul went to his gentile friends in Greek world and collected funds and sent it to Jerusalem to be distributed to the poor (II Cor. 8: 1-3, 10-11; Rom. 15,26). Following this Pauline charity works, many of our Lay people, Fathers, Sisters and brothers offered their generous donation to covid-19 charity, which was distributed to all the deserving poor families in our Archdiocese through the office of Procurator and MMSSS. Apart from this, most of you, as individual member of the Presbyterium, and from your parishes and institutions helped the poor with food materials and other necessary things at difficult time. I appreciate all of you for your generous service to the poor. Know very well that this is the hallmark of our discipleship (Jn 13:35) to Christ. May the good Lord reward all of you for your commitment to charity and service to the poor (Mt. 19,21).

Now I would like to, also, blow the whistle of the future sufferings yet to come to humanity. The threat of contagious sickness, loss of job opportunities, famine and fear of working together and being together among people will enchain all of you and our people. Be careful in maintaining your good health by preventive care, clean environment and regular exercises. And be more vigilant in your Parishes and Institutions lest the faithful are not affected by any future disease. Let us continue to pray to the merciful Father to protect all His children from this worldwide disease.

God bless you all.

Your Loving Archbishop

+ Most Rev. Dr. Antony Pappusamy

Archbishop of Madurai
